

Arizona Rosewood (Common Name)

Vauquelinia californica (Scientific Name)

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Canopy potential: 4' – 15' wide

Annual Growth Rate: 24"

Powerline Compatible: 5' – 25' from base

Root Damage Potential: Low

Leaves: Leathery, yellow-green foliage.

Flowers: Small white flowers.

ENVIRONMENTAL CHARACTERISTICS

Water Use: Low

Edible Fruit Producing: No

Allergenic: Low

BVOC Emissions: N/A

Sonoran Desert Native: Yes

Invasive Species: No

Tree Care: Best in native soil, as well as loose soil. Irrigate surrounding to encourage the root growth. Do not over water, or excessively prune. Prune or shear when needed after 1 year, and reduce irrigation to reduce growth.

