

Sonoran Palo Verde / Palo Brea (Common Name)

Parkinsonia praecox (Scientific Name)

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS

Canopy potential: 20' wide

Annual Growth Rate: 36"

Powerline Compatible: 20' from base

Root Damage Potential: Low

Leaves: Small leaves, lime green with a waxy bloom.

Flowers: Masses of yellow flowers in axillary clusters.

ENVIRONMENTAL CHARACTERISTICS

Water Use: Low

Edible Fruit Producing: No

Allergenic: High

BVOC Emissions: Moderate

Sonoran Desert Native: Yes

Invasive Species: No

Tree Care: Plant in full sun to light shade. Regular irrigation to promote growth to establish tree. Do not over water, as it can become top-heavy and cause structural issues. Prune to enhance form and for appearance.